Malbec'Exception'2014, Fabrice Durou, Cahors, France – New	£11.50
A French Malbec from the region around Cahors, not fat and punchy as you know it from Argentina, but Malbec in its most pure, fruity and elegant form - succulent, bright & smooth. Very user friendly
Marcillac 'Lo Sang del Pais' 2014, Domaine du Cros, South West	£13.75
Healthy purple-red colour, aromas of raspberries, myrtle and red currants, medium-bodied with sharp cherry flavours underpinned by distinctive mineral notes of iron and slate. Easy-drinking but very more-ish.
Côtes du Rhône 2011, Selection Laurence Feraud, Rhône– New	£14.50
This blend of Syrah and Grenache has developed very nicely after few years of ageing. It still has layers of ripe fruit matched with Asian spices and some leather and liquorice notes.
Pinot Noir 'Puy-de-Dome' 2013, Cave Saint Verny, Auvergne	£14.75
Not from Burgundy, but all the better for it. All the quality but not the price tag! Hints of herbs and ripe cherry fruit on the nose. The palate is elegant and textured with smooth, sappy red cherry fruit. Expressive & elegantly pure Pinot.
Faugeres Tradition 2013, Clos Fantine, France – Biodynamic	£17.00
Drinking this Faugeres will make you feel closer to nature. This is a crawl on the wild side: the fruit is meaty with game & garrigue notes of bay & roasted thyme & there is a pronounced, bonfire smokiness on the finish.
Le Petit Roy, 13eme année, Domaine Jean Royer, Southern Rhone	£18.00
The vintage is in the name. A blend of Mourvedre, Grenache & Syrah. It has a lovely sappy-succulent character with plump, ripe & peppery fruit. Deceptively easy to drink, but essentially a succulent & gorgeous baby Châteauneuf-du-Pape.
Prologue 2013, Christian Ducroux, Beaujolais, France – New	£18.50
At only 10.5% alcohol, this Gamay from the village of Regnie in Beaujolais is dangerously drinkable. The nose is bright and pretty and the palate is filled with fresh herbs and tons of cranberries and redcurrant fruits. Have it chilled!
Château Ducluzeau 2006, Lustrac-Medoc, Bordeaux	£25.00
Immaculately made Margaux-styled wine. More linear and precise fruit than in the 2005 vintage, with very attractive and quite prominent new oak flavours and tannins which have integrated to make this a very fine claret indeed.
Saint Joseph '350 M' 2011, David Reynaud, Northern Rhone – Biodynamic	£29.00
So named because the vineyards are situated at 350m above sea level. Full bodied wine with aromas of blackberry & fresh plums on the nose. Round on the palate, firm tannins, it has intense black fruits & spiceflavours, with a long finish.
Pommard 'Tavannes' 2011, Dom.Fernand & Laurent Pillot, Burgundy	£35.00
A mouth-filling, perfume-y Pinot Noir from the village of Tavannes in Pommard. Winning cherry fruit, spice and mineral flavours framed by grippy but reassuringly fine tannins. Great length. One to consider if you're trying to convert a devotee of big reds to the pleasures of Burgundy.

Spain & Portugal

- Garnacha 2014, Viña Zorzal, Navarra, Spain — Organic New £13.25

- Douro Tinto 'Animus' 2013, Douro, Portugal £12.50
Meaning "soul" in Latin, Animus is indeed a soulful wine. Made from carefully chosen parcels of indigenous Portuguese grape varieties also used in the finest ports. A palate of red fruits, cedar & grilled meat followed by spicy ripe fruit & soft tannins.
- Pontval 2013, Pontval, Vinho Regiona Alentejano, Portugal £14.00
A blend of Alicante Bouschet, Syrah, Touriga Nacional & Petit Verdot. Vibrant rich fruit. Aged in Oak, this wine is all about the silky finish & round full bodied flavours. Just the right amount of seriousness for the fading daylight.
- Bierzo 2014 Castro Ventosa Joven, Bierzo, Spain £15.00
This 100% Mencía offers stunning value for money from the up-and-coming Bierzo region in northwest Spain. It is very fruit-forward but with some mineral and meaty undertones. The attack is crunchy and grippy yet it finishes dry and clean.
- Rioja Reserva 2011, Izadi, Rioja, Spain — New £16.75
Shiny ruby red in colour. Rich aromatic intensity and a nice balance of red fruit, liquorice and spices, with hints of smoke in the background. Elegant and round on the palate with a long aftertaste full of floral and ripe fruit notes.
- Planella 2012, Montsant, Spain - Biodynamic £19.50
Often associated with great value Priorat: same grapes, same climate, similar soils at a fraction of the price. The wines are deep, intense and powerful but balanced by an amazing freshness and minerality. This blend of Carignan, Syrah and a dash of Grenache has an elegance difficult to find in the region. Black fruit, savoury spices and hints of Provençal herbs.

The Rest of Europe

- Zweigelt 2013 Johannesh of Reinisch, Austria - New £16.00
Attractive dark berry and cherry fruits with distinctive peppery / spicy notes with hints of leafiness. The palate is juicy and fleshy, powerful fruit with softer tannins and refreshing acidity. A pleasure to drink.
- Kekfrankos 'Balf' 2012, Weninger, Sopron, Hungary £16.50
Also known as Blaufränkisch in Austria, Kekfrankos is the most widely planted red grape variety in Hungary. This dark skinned variety has an intense purple colour with an abundance of dark cherry fruit and black pepper. 20 months spent in small oak barrigues gives us notes of spice & chocolate. Think black forest gateaux — delicious!
- Spätburgunder Tradition 2010, Rebholz, Pfalz, Germany £34.00
An elegant style of Pinot Noir with beautiful perfumed aromas of raspberry & strawberry with underlying savoury, vegetal notes with spice & a light creaminess. The palate is a surprisingly powerful hit of red fruits, forest floor & spice. Continuously develops in the glass.
